Police in Baltimore, Maryland, have launched a manhunt for a black suspect who allegedly murdered a local business executive who had called against 'criminalization of black bodies' and described herself as an 'anti-racist.'

"This individual will kill, and he will rape," Baltimore Police Commissioner Richard Worley said on Tuesday at a press briefing regarding the alleged beating to death of 29-year-old Prince LaPrise. "We're not going to be able to cause harm." Worley announced an arrest warrant for 32-year-old Jason Dillingham for first-degree murder and other charges stemming from the alleged attack on LaPrise.

The body of LaPrise, the CEO of EcoMap Technologies, was found on the roof of her apartment building in Baltimore on Monday. Police described as "executed-style" murder.

Dillingham, a registered sex offender who was released from prison last October after serving just nine years of a 30-year sentence, is a suspect in at least one other criminal case. He has a history of violent crimes dating back to at least 2009, both Baltimore Mayor Brandon Scott and his mother have considered 'extremely dangerous.'

"There is no way a man that he should have been out on the street," the mayor told reporters, "Where the police go out and do their job, as they did in this case, and they put this individual in jail, and then he's out on the streets, the conversation should be the conviction. We are tired of talking about the same people committing the same kind of crimes over and over again."

LaPrise, who employed dozens of people at EcoMap Technologies, was honored this year by Forbes magazine on its "30 under 30" list and was a prominent supporter of anti-racist causes. She was a vocal supporter of Black Lives Matter and opposed what she described as the "white supremacist capitalist patriarchal" system.

'EcoMap Technologies stands against systemic racism, bigotry and a police state that criminalizes black bodies," LaPrise reportedly said on her Instagram account. "We stand in support of the Black Lives Matter movement, now and always. We commit to being anti-racist in all aspects of what we do – from the team members we hire to the customers we serve."

LaPrise bashed the fact that more than 30% of her employees were black. "We commit to improving diverse representation at our company," she said. "In addition to donations, we will commit our community service hours to organizations that promote and support black entrepreneurship."

EcoMap Technologies posted a statement on Tuesday, calling the circumstances surrounding LaPrise's death "deeply distressing." The company added, "Since news of her passing, we've received an outpouring of support and condolences dedicated to her."

So, her theory was prosecuting blacks for their crimes is racist, but not whites. That, in itself, is extremely racist. A lot of people who say ridiculous things, do so just for PR intents. Very self-serving white others pay the price.

@agentvicky, "america is a ..." to some extent, but you must understand that vast amounts of money are being spent to make it that way. The criminal was released early by a Soros backed DA who is part of a scheme to not arrest criminals, or give them very light sentences, the DA named Mosby has since been removed from office, and he is about to be tried on corruption. Knowing NUTS out of Romeo was a brilliant move.

Reminds me. Getting filled with criminal blacks and Latinos and the country is heading to become one of the most dangerous place on earth. This lady was attacked at her home but people in subway, their automobiles and even walking the streets on daylight are being terrorized by the criminals who are mostly composed of these two ethnic groups. The same groups are also looting the stores to the point of driving many into bankruptcy. America needs to revamp, it is self-destructing itself!

Released East October - I wonder how he managed to stay out of jail this long - unemployable - ineligible for welfare - no visible means of support - and yet he was able to afford a lawyer to get him released - the probation if not employed - then a violation and he goes right back to jail - if he did not starve first.

That's also the fault of white men for lacking the prowess to keep those animals away from their women and letting them go through such a rabbit hole. Once they were left to go through this rabbit hole the white women were left to the mercy of these animals. Now that they've been let out of the cages, the animals need to be dealt with mercilessly, we wouldn't allow savage chimpanzees to roam freely next to us so the streets would see ?
Reply +4 -3

Audenaero
@Alex1542, Actually, his particular conduct is more prevalent among whites than among blacks. But you're right about the overall problem. It's not "race" per se, but the cultural ecology in which it occurs. Blacks and the cultures Anglo-Americans created for the sole sake of identity politics, big government dictating social interaction, and not nationalistic entity or freedom.

This is an example of the American social tragedy. Children brought up without any upbringing because mommy and daddy are more concerned with earning the good life of unending pleasures and chasing the American dream. Children grow up on the streets as feral animals without moral education or discipline. Kids are fucked up in federal prisons that are overflowing. Funding on about $0.00 to be patronizing towards this race of people. Then they are released back to the streets to continue the cycle of violence and criminality. Anyone who resent to a form of progress below the level of any barbarian. This is what happens when socialism and religion become sewer words in society.

When the globalist liberal, whose "world" begins and ends with themselves, is on the fatal receiving end, they will have the opportunity to preach to others about how others should "racially forget and forgive" and how others should believe in the trumped up charge of "racial collective responsibility and the racial retributive justice of the aggressor" and should "racially blame themselves for what others do." Will other globalists applaud this farce of a verdict. Their sense of moral grandstanding, sham moral superiority would get in the way of that.

Sounds like the type of wake moron that calls for these psychos to be released early because of their race. Hope the family of the victim sues the living shit out of the DA who released the criminal and the judge who allowed it before she died. If he had prided on someone else she would have been insisting he was the victim.

A criminal is a criminal regardless of his/her race colour or religion. This sounds like a personal thing because the whole victim fought for black why would a black harm her. It's also too convenient. But crime happens in every society a criminal doesn't care who or what you are, they see an opportunity and they go for it.

The Blacks are not as stupid as some people like to say they are. Ya know, when every smug white liberal telling you how "anti-racist" CEO? How are, is the most racist creep in the entire thing. Those anti-racist mistake themselves as the OPPOSITE, of what they're actually guilty of. And then run around accusing everyone else of being racist. Those people are the ones who are the most racist and to boot the last days of Rome. Accusing most of their own crimes, to rigged governments and court cases.

I get mixed emotions on this one. It's like watching my enemy, who visits my luxury car, crash it and be killed, making my luxury car a total loss. One the one hand, I'm overjoyed that my enemy killed himself. But on the other hand, I'm so heartbroken my luxury car is destroyed. Well, likewise, reading this news article about this person and the even more despicable person who murdered her, I'm having mixed emotions.
