

Aunterria T Bollinger-Deters

Colorado State University, Journalism and Media Communication/Race, Gender, and Ethnic Studies, Adjunct

+ Follow

Followers	24
Following	25
Public Views	571

My research and teaching is largely focused on race, sexuality, ethnicity, gender, ability, nationality, and class in cultural artifacts such as social media, video games, literature, comics, manga, television and film. Major concentrations in my work are portrayals of Black women in media, Women of Color in Media, Black femin...see more

Related Authors

Noel B. Salazar
KU Leuven

Matthew Wolf-Meyer
Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute

Aaron Gerow
Yale University

Seth C Lewis
University of Oregon

Alejandra B B Osorio
Wellesley College

Scott R. Stroud
The University of Texas at Austin

Armağan Karahanoğlu
University of Twente

David Seamon
Kansas State University

Remo Caponi
University of Cologne

Armando Marques-Guedes
UNL - New University of Lisbon

Interests

View All (22)

Feminist film theory

Feminism and Social Justice

Transnational Feminism

Film History

Pornography Studies

✉ in 1

Uploads

- All
- 4 Teaching Documents
- 1 Papers

Teaching Documents by Aunterria T Bollinger-Deters

ETST 100: Introduction to Ethnic Studies (FA24)

According to the acclaimed ancestor James Baldwin, the construct of race in the United States is ... more

Download 13 Views

JTC 412 International Mass Communications Syllabus

In our daily lives we regularly encounter mass media that help shape our opinions, experiences, a... more

Download 34 Views

Black Cinema and Media Syllabus

This course surveys the complex histories, theories, and controversies that have characterized Bl... more

Download 273 Views

Black Feminisms Syllabus

To bridge the gaps of what has formerly been known as Black Feminisms and what we are striving to... more

Download 121 Views

Papers by Aunterria T Bollinger-Deters

Racialization, femininity, motherhood and the Iron Throne: Game of Thrones as a high fantasy rejection of women of color

Download 32 Views