Your CLA Advisor

What They Do & What They Don't

Academic Advisors Do:

- Help you understand your degree plan and plan out the rest of your undergraduate education
- Act as your advisor for academic guidance
- Advise you if you are struggling with classes or professors
- Advocate for you and help you connect with resources across campus to ensure you succeed in college
- Inform you of activities and events related to your major

Academic Advisors Don't:

- Register for classes for you
- Pick out classes for you*
- Override students into classes*
- Fix registration system issues on RamWeb
- Approve a change of major or minor to another department/college
- Sign repeat/delete forms
- Add or advise for your minor
- Evaluate transfer credit or study abroad forms
- *Some exceptions apply

The Advising Syllabus is the College of Liberal Arts Academic Support Center's guiding document for advising. This document outlines the responsibilities of each party in the advising relationship.
