About

From Northern California, I moved to Colorado in 2023 to study Journalism at Colorado State University. A lover of all things active and outdoors, I plan on becoming a travel journalist and writing about the things I encounter abroad whether that be interesting people, places, or experiences. I've fostered a passion for writing ever since I could hold a pen and was quick to join the Rocky Mountain Collegian as soon as I got to CSU in the fall of 2023.
