Michael Hovey, Sports Editor

Michael Hovey is a junior at CSU majoring in Technical Professional Marketing. He is also a Marketing Major and serves as the Sports Editor for The Collegian. Michael is originally from Fort Collins, Colorado, and graduated from Fort Collins High School in 2021.

Michael has been a passionate sports fan since childhood, with a particular interest in football, basketball, and baseball. Writing about sports has always been a way for him to combine his love for the games with his desire to tell compelling stories and engage with the community around him.

Michael's writing style is characterized by a clear, concise, and engaging tone. He has a knack for breaking down complex topics, such as game strategies or player performances, into easily understandable terms, while also delivering insightful analysis that goes beyond the surface.

Outside of his work at the paper, Michael enjoys playing intramural sports, attending concerts, and exploring the great outdoors that Colorado has to offer. He is also an avid reader and enjoys staying up-to-date on the latest trends in sports and media.

Michael is dedicated to providing his readers with the most accurate and up-to-date information possible, and he takes great pride in his role as a member of the Collegian team. He is excited to continue growing as a writer and to contribute to the success of the paper in the years to come.

If you'd like to reach out to Michael, feel free to do so at michael.hovey@collegian.com. You can also follow him on Twitter @MichaelHovey for updates on his latest articles and thoughts.
